

HOW TO RECEIVE AN INITIAL

WORKFORCE SERVICES FAMILY, FRIEND AND NEIGHBOR (FFN) CHILD CARE PROVIDER APPROVAL

All license-exempt family, friend and neighbor providers must have a Workforce Services Child Care Approval from the Department of Health, Child Care Licensing (CCL) Program before Department of Workforce Services (DWS) subsidy payments can be authorized.

Information about how to receive an initial Workforce Services Child Care approval can be found at childcarelicensing.utah.gov. Go to the Child Care Providers tab, click How to Apply, then go to the DWS Approved Family, Friend and Neighbor (FFN) section.

	Checklist of Items to Complete
✓	Items to complete
	1. Read the DWS Child Care Provider Requirements. These are the requirements for receiving and maintaining a Workforce Services FFN Child Care Provider Approval.
	2. Submit an online application.
	3. Submit an online Background Screening Form for each covered individual. Covered individuals are you and everyone 12 years old and older who live in the home.
	4. Submit fingerprints and the fingerprint processing fee for each covered individual 18-years old and older.
	5. Read the information in the DWS FFN training packet. This includes an explanation of inspections, facts about the payment process, and information for the health and safety of children in care.
	6. Submit your answers to the new provider orientation test. After you read the information in the New Provider Orientation packet, complete the New Provider Orientation test. You must score at least 90% on this test. You may retake it as many times as necessary until you receive a score of 90% or better.
	7. Have an inspection of the home where care will be provided. After your completed application is received, a Licenser will contact you with the date and time of this inspection. You must be in compliance with all regulations at this inspection or show compliance by the Compliance Date. This includes having a current First Aid certification and CPR certification. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> The First Aid certification can be from any First Aid class.* The CPR certification must be from a Red Cross, American Heart, or equivalent class that included hands-on testing.* You can contact your local Care About Child Care Agency for information about First Aid and CPR classes.

*Funding is available through CareAboutChildcare.utah.gov to help offset the first aid and CPR costs (half of the cost of your training up to $50). Keep your receipts for reimbursement.

Note: You will be responsible for any additional costs incurred to complete the Workforce Services FFN requirements. The Workforce Services customer must also meet and comply with child care eligibility requirements. Completing the approval process is not a guarantee of payment by Workforce Services.

Number of Children in Care: Utah State Law requires a license or residential certificate when you are caring for more than four unrelated children in your home. For information on the licensing requirements, go to childcarelicensing.utah.gov. Then go to the Child Care Providers tab and click on Rules.
